

Nursing Education Editor

Passion is everything...which is why yours would be an asset to the Emergency Nurses Association. ENA is looking for a Nursing Education Editor to maintain responsibility for content review of educational products to ensure clinical accuracy and consistency among ENA products.

If you have at minimum, a Bachelors Degree in nursing, current RN incl. 3 years in emergency nursing, proficiency in MS Word and previous writing/publications (clinical or research journals), we'd love to see your resume. Desired: Master's Degree; ENPC, TNCC or CATN instructor; previous association experience.

If you want your enthusiasm to make a difference, join us today! ENA is located in downtown Des Plaines near train and bus transportation. We offer great benefits, including 401(k), profit sharing and more. To learn more about this full-time, exempt position visit www.ena.org or send your resume and salary requirements to hr@ena.org. Possibility of a Sign-on Bonus and some Telecommuting after 6 mos.

Equal Opportunity Employer M/F/D/V

OR

Nursing Education Editor

Use your experience to impact emergency nursing practice across the country. ENA national headquarters in Des Plaines, Illinois, has a unique position available for an experienced RN with writing experience, who is looking for new challenge. Desired: Master's Degree; TNCC or CATN instructor; previous association experience. See complete job description at <http://www.ena.org>, Career Center; send resume to hr@ena.org. Possibility of a Sign-on Bonus and some Telecommuting after 6 mos.